

Anne Lyren, M.D.

office: 216-844-8260

fax: 216-844-8444

email: alyren@yahoo.com

EDUCATION

1993-1997 Case Western Reserve School of Medicine. Cleveland, OH
Medical Doctor Degree

1992-1993 University of Edinburgh, Scotland
Rotary International Scholar
Master of Science Degree, Philosophy & Biomedical Ethics
Honors Thesis: Paternalism in Medicine

1988-1992 Harvard University. Cambridge, MA
Bachelor of Arts Degree cum laude, Biology

TRAINING

1997-1998 Pediatric Internship. Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital

1998-2000 Pediatric Residency. Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital

2000-2001 Chief Pediatric Residency. Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital

EMPLOYMENT

2000-2001 Clinical Instructor, Case Western Reserve University

2001-Present Assistant Professor of Pediatrics & Bioethics, Case Western Reserve University

LICENSURE and CERTIFICATION

Medical Licensure Ohio 35-07-5781-L

Board Certification American Board of Pediatrics, 10/24/00

PUBLICATIONS

Lyren A. Handling Pediatric Care: How Much Should Child Patients Be Told? American Medical News 2002; 45:21.

Lyren A, Kodish, E. Child's medical needs override parent's rights. The Plain Dealer. 2002 Dec 24; Sect. B:3 (col. 1).

Lyren A. The Abuse of Alternative Medicine. Hastings Center Report. Sept 2003 ; 33(15) discussion 13-4.

Lyren A, Kodish E. Overview of Ethical Issues in Pediatrics. In: Post SG, editor. Encyclopedia of Bioethics. 3rd ed. New York: Macmillan Reference; 2003.

Lyren A, Kodish ED, Siegel B. Ethics. In Woodhead JC, editor. Pediatric Clerkship Guide. New York: Mosby; 2003. p.22-29.

Ponitz K, Wright M, Lyren A. Teaching Virtues of Life to Pediatric Residents. Abstract submitted to Pediatric Academic Society, 2003.

Lyren A, Kodish E, Lazebnik R. Understanding Confidentiality in the Adolescent Patient/Doctor Relationship: A Pilot Study (Phase 1). Oral Presentation for Society for Adolescent Medicine Meeting, 2004.

Lyren A, Silber TJ. Consent, Confidentiality and Other Related Issues in the Care of Adolescents: Medical, Legal, Ethical and Practical Considerations. In Greydanus, D, editor. Essentials of Adolescent Medicine. New York: Mosby; 2004 In press.

GRANTS

2002-Present Children's Research Foundation, Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital for project entitled "Confidentiality in the Adolescent Patient/Doctor Relationship: A Pilot Study."

HONORS & AWARDS

1992 Rotary International Scholarship
 1997 Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society Induction
 2004 Society for Adolescent Medicine New Investigator Award Finalist

SERVICE

1999-Present Intern Selection Committee
 2000-Present Rainbow Center for Pediatric Ethics, Associate Director
 2000-Present Rainbow Babies & Children's Pediatric Ethics Committee
 2001-Present University Hospitals Ethics Committee
 2002-Present Pediatric Ethics Committee Co-Chair
 2003-Present Pediatric Department Institutional Review Board
 1999-2001 Education Committee

TEACHING

2000-Present Teaching Attending
 2000-Present Pediatric Physical Diagnosis for 2nd Year Medical Students
 2001-Present Pediatric Resident Ethics Rounds Leader
 2002-Present "Ethics of Complex Humanitarian Emergencies" – Seminar Leader
 2003-Present Pediatric Ethics Resident Elective—Course Director

2003, 2004 "Confidentiality in the Adolescent Patient/Doctor Relationship" – Lecture for Faculty of Division of General Academic Pediatrics, Pediatric House Staff
2003 "Introduction to Pediatric Ethics" –Lecturer

MENTORING

2001 Faculty Advisor for five pediatric residents
2002 Letters of Recommendation written for two medical students
2002 Faculty Advisor for six pediatric residents
2003 Faculty Advisor for six pediatric residents
2003 Letters of Recommendation written for four medical students
2004 Faculty Advisor for ten pediatric residents

